THINKING OUT LOUD

Words and Music by ED SHEERAN and AMY WADGE

Moderately

When your legs don't work like they used to before
When my hair's all but gone and my memory fades and I can't sweep you off of your feet,

and the crowds don't remember my name,

with your mouth still remember the when my hands don't play the

When your eyes still smile from your cheeks?
I know you will still love me the same.
And darling, I 'Cause honey, your old, it's evergreen.

And baby, my heart could still feel as hard at twenty-three.
And baby, your smile's forever in my mind and memory.

And I'm thinking 'bout how
And I'm thinking 'bout how people fall in love in mysterious ways,
