

Blue Jeans

Words & Music by Emile Haynie, Elizabeth Grant & Daniel Heath

N.C.

Musical notation for the first system, including a treble clef staff with a whole rest and a grand staff with a bass line.

Fm

E $\flat$

B $\flat$ /F

1. Blue jeans, white shirt, walked in - to the room you know you made my eyes burn. It was
2. Big dreams, gang - sta, said you had to leave to start your life o - ver. I was

Fm

E $\flat$

B $\flat$ /F

like, James Dean, for sure. You're so fresh to death and sick as ca - can - cer.
like, no please, stay here, we don't need no mon - ey we can make it all work. But he

Fm

E $\flat$

B $\flat$

You were sor - ta punk rock, I grew up on hip hop, but you fit me bet - ter than my fa - your - ite sweat - er and I know head - ed out on Sun - day, said he'd come home Mon - day. I stayed up wait - in', an - ti - ci - pat - in' and pac - in' but he was

Fm

E $\flat$

B $\flat$ /F

that love is mean, and love hurts. But I still re - mem - ber that day we met in De - cem - ber, oh ba - by!
chas - ing pa - per. Caught up in the game that was the last I heard.

§

Fm

E $\flat$

B $\flat$

I will love you till the end of time. I would wait a mil - lion years.

Fm

Eb

Bb

Prom-ise you'll re-mem-ber that — you're mine.

Ba-by, can you see through the tears?

Fm

Eb

Bb

Love you more than those bitch-es be-fore.

Say you'll re-mem-ber, say you'll re-mem-ber, oh ba-by,

Fm

Eb

1, 3.

Fine

2. Bb7

N.C.

ooh. I will love you till the end — of time.

time.

Fm

You went out ev-'ry night, and ba-by that's al-right.

I told you that no mat-ter what you did I'd be by your side.

— 'Cause im - ma ride or die — wheth - er you fail or fly. Well, shit at least you tried, but when you walked out that door — a piece of me died. — Told you I want - ed more,

— it's not what I had in mind. — Just want it like be - fore. — We were danc - in' all night.

D.S. al Fine

N.C.

Then they took you a - way, _ stole you out of my life. _ You just need to re-mem - ber...